der arrest.

Post 5/1/64

Doctors for Cuba

HAVANA — Russian physicians are helping to relieve the shortage of doctors in Cuba. Most of the island's physicians fled after Fidel Castro took power. The Castro regime is pushing medical students through compacted 2-year schooling, but in the meantime one-quarter of the doctors at the Central Military Hospital are foreigners, ten of them Russians, the rest Spaniards, Hungarians and Argentines.

...der arrest.

Doctors for Cuba

HAVANA — Russian physicians are helping to relieve the shortage of doctors in Cuba. Most of the island's physicians fled after Fidel Castro took power. The Castro regime is pushing medical students through compacted 2-year schooling, but in the meantime one-quarter of the doctors at the Central Military Hospital are foreigners, ten of them Russians, the rest Spaniards, Hungarians and Argentines.